1 Arnhem Land

Arnhem Land is Aboriginal land, and a place few have the opportunity to experience. Occupying the north-eastern corner of the Territory, this sacred country is home to breathtaking landscapes, rare wildlife and the oldest surviving culture in human history.

2 The Kimberley

From early explorer pioneer settlements to the Bungle Bungle Range and Horizontal Falls, the Kimberley is a place where history collides. With the rugged escarpments, magnificent gorges, and pristine waterways, you'll be blown away by just how spectacular it is.

3 Cape York

Cape York is a place where nature rules. From the northernmost tip of Australia, to the world's oldest rainforest and the colourful reef formation that can be seen from space, Cape York is a tropical heaven waiting to be explored.

4 Queensland

Queensland is as vast as it is diverse. As the second largest state in Australia, it's sun-drenched cities, an outback interior of rolling red sand dunes, coastlines, forest canopy's and more.

5 Central Australia

Endlessly fascinating and uncompromisingly remote, Central Australia commands deep reverence and respect. This is an area made for adventure and packed with sights that are guaranteed to take your breath away.

6 The West

Home to the hidden waterfalls of Karijini, the vineyards and fine wines of the Margaret River Region and World Heritage-listed Shark Bay, the Pilbara and South West are Mother Nature at her finest.

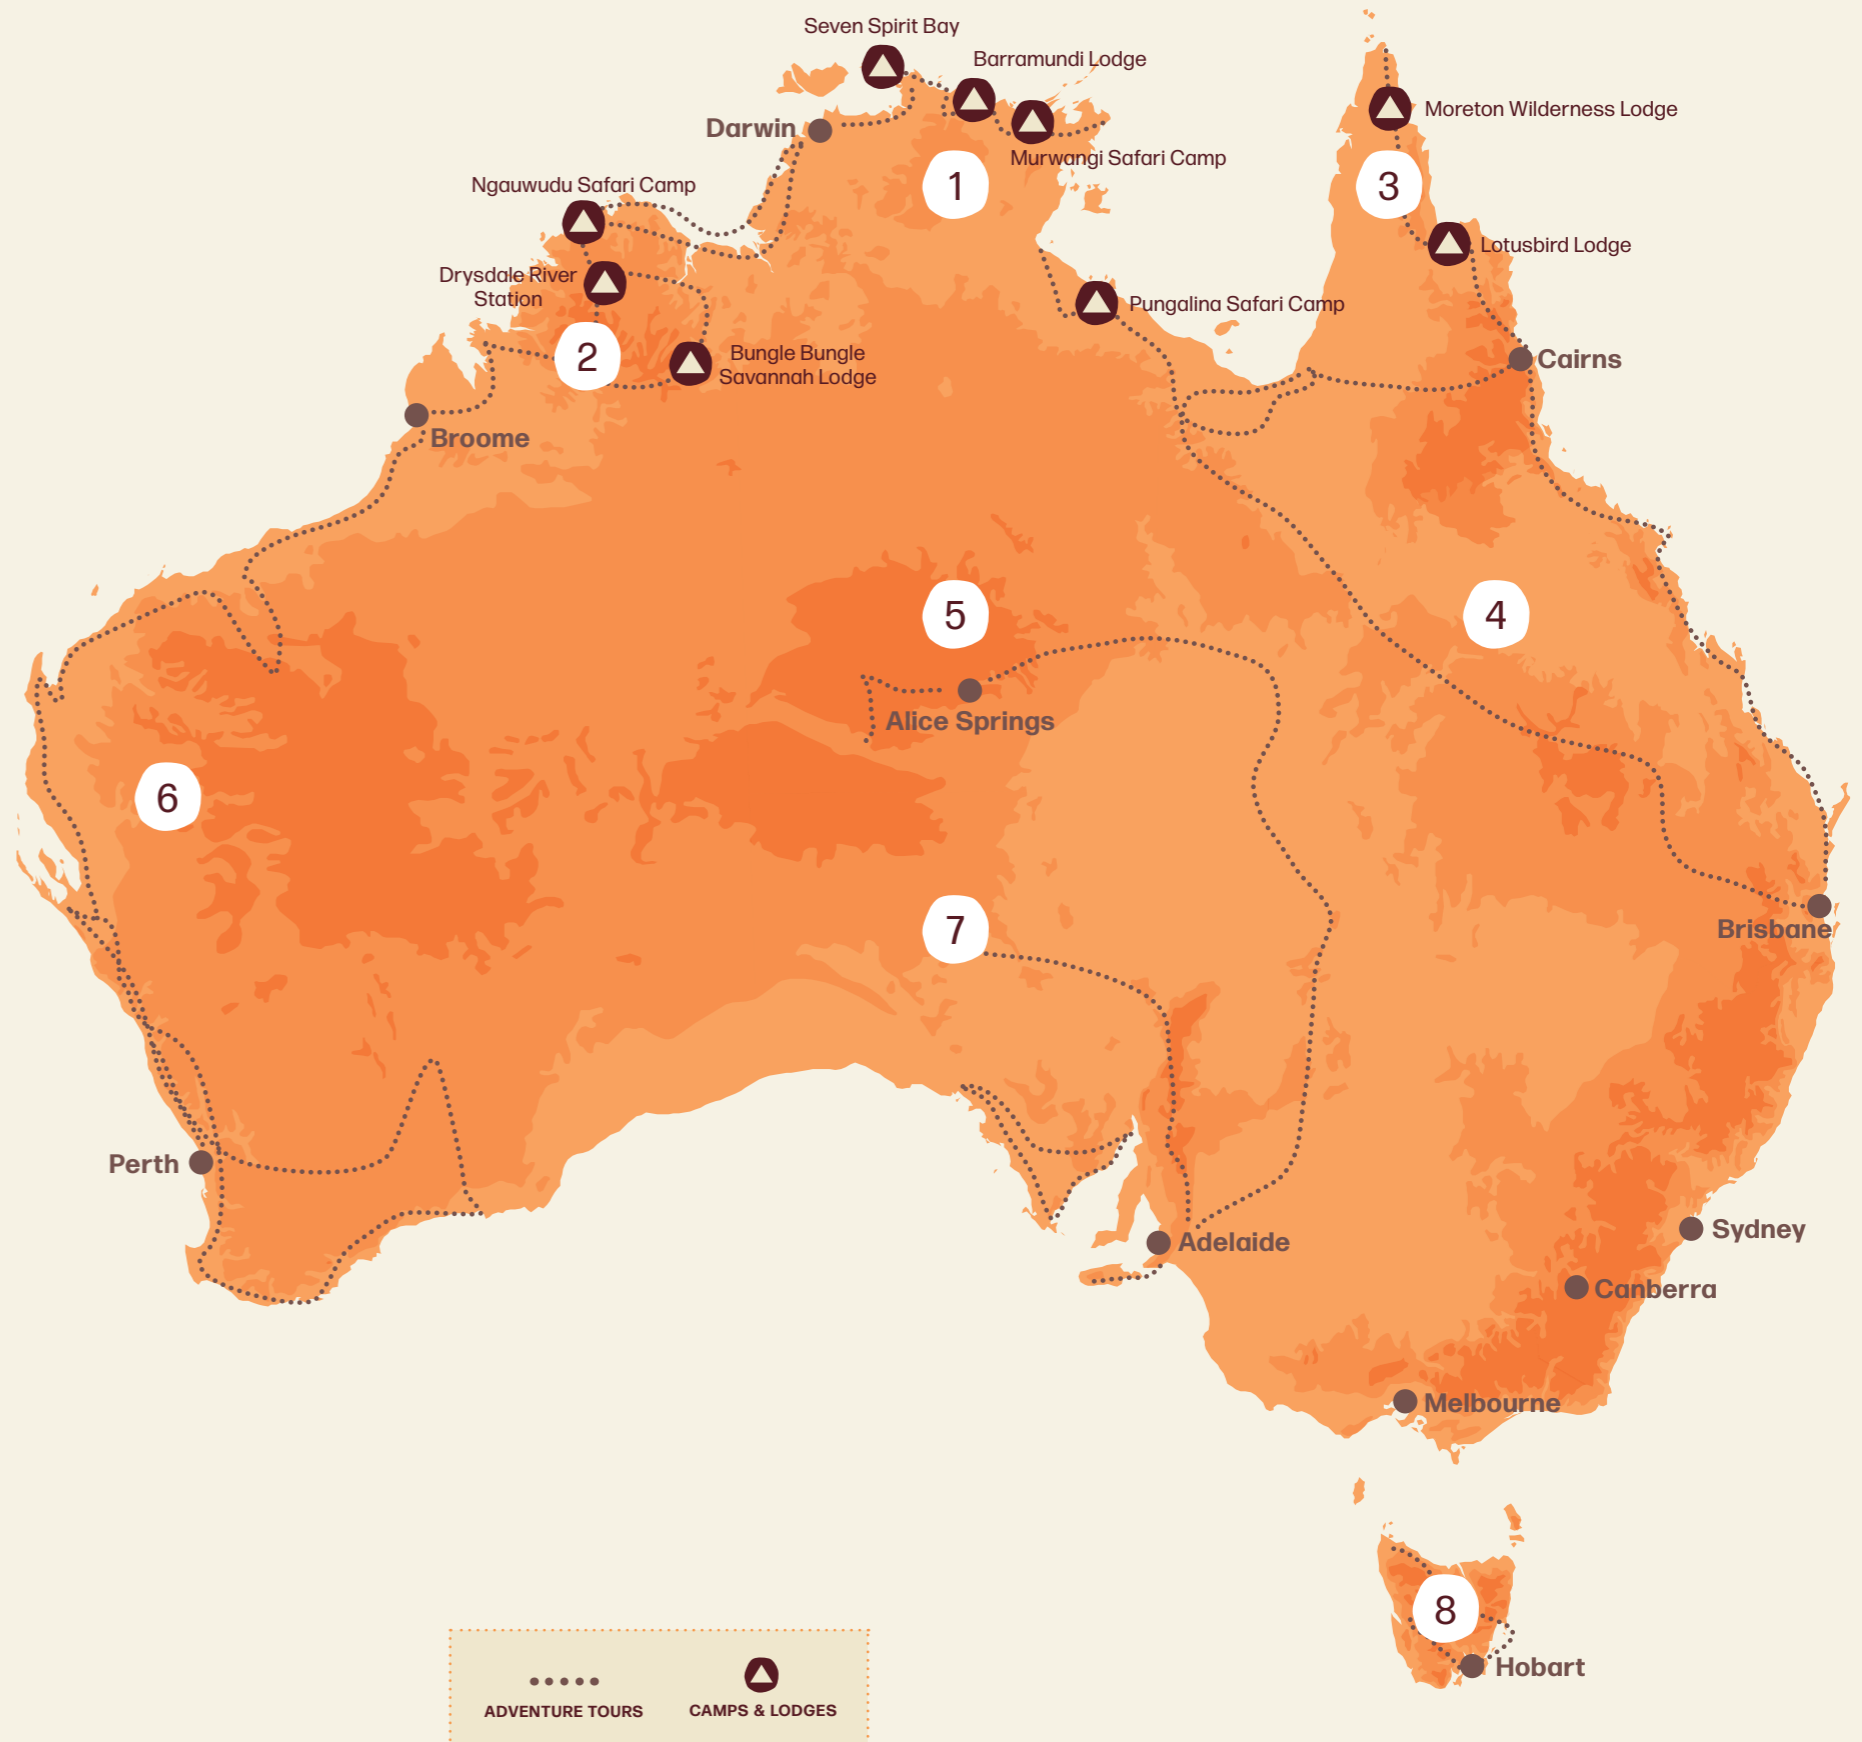

7 South Australia

Whether it's Wilpena Pound or the coast of Kangaroo Island, Australia's southern region is full of wonder. This culturally vibrant state is renowned for its festivals, fine wines, and stunning outback landscapes.

8 Tasmania

Pristine, rugged and pure. Tasmania is a place of proud people, excellent produce and Australia's cleanest air. On this adventure you'll do, see and experience it all, including dazzling beaches, old forests and towering mountain peaks.
